Relax, It's Christmas!

Jesus is coming we say. But here is a question for you. When we meet Jesus, what would be the best way to describe his personality? Surely, for those of you who have been walking with him for some time, there must be some way to describe the overall presence of Jesus. What is the essential nature of his character, the Spirit of his person? What kind of person is coming?

The best word to describe the character of Jesus might be the word relaxed. That's the core of his healing presence. I think people who have been following Jesus for some time will learn to radiate this naturally. They just have the ability to make you feel at home, that you have a place. Because they have experienced and cultivated this place within and can share it.

I have talked with so many people over the years, whose experience of the Christmas Season is just the opposite. There is so much stress, that when it's over they're just glad it's done. Even our bible texts can be stressful. Watch! Be on the alert, so you don't miss it! But this vigilance is often more stressful than any form of calm or relaxation.

The foundational discipline to cultivate in order to receive the Christ child is simply this. Relax. If you can't relax (and I know what that is), ask God to help you and then take the time for silence and listen for an answer. Whatever you do, don't "try to relax" on your own! That's totally going in the wrong direction. Ask for it. Simply ask. Not once, but for the season. THEN, wait and watch. Do the discipline of Advent. The gift will come.

"How silently, how silently, the wondrous gift is given. So God imparts to human hearts the blessing of his heaven" (O Little Town of Bethlehem, verse 3).

Women of the ELCA Thank Offering Service

St. Paul Women of the ELCA conducted their annual Thank Offering service during the morning worship hour on Sunday, November 18. Officers sharing in the service were Linda Beran, Norma Banahan, Ardie Barber and Jeanette Bures. $188.00 was collected and will be sent to support ministries of the Women of the ELCA.

When Women of the ELCA was formed in 1987, we committed to continue this tradition of giving in gratitude for blessings. Each year, in thousands of congregations, Thankofferings are given to support the life-changing ministries of Women of the ELCA. Together, we do more than we could ever do apart.

“Rejoice always, pray without ceasing, give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for You.” First Thessalonians 5:16-18

November 11 2018

On Sunday, November 11, we welcomed Deacon Connie Stover, Director of “Seeking the Spirit Within” for the Nebraska Synod and served in the past as an assistant to the Bishop. She preached during the worship service and led a workshop following the service.

. This program is designed to help people learn how to listen to God, self and others and to become present in the moment. Our minds are constantly going from past to future, but God is in the PRESENT. It takes work and practice on how to do this. Seeking the Spirit Within was one of several initiatives created from a strategic planning process undertaken by the Nebraska Synod in 2006 which resulted in a primary conclusion that the root of Christ’s mission anywhere at any time is spiritual leadership. Spiritual directors help to strengthen the spiritual leadership of our synod and its people in these ways: by leading faith formation groups for adults in the congregations; providing spiritual directions for registered and lay leaders; working with Nebraska Synod congregations in transition; facilitating devotions and times of prayer for various Nebraska Synod gatherings; and facilitating annual guided retreats for Nebraska Synod adults. Deacon Stover talked to us in her message about these retreats, and the next one will be on February 2, 2019. She also discussed in her message on how crisis in our lives affects us spiritually – when you have nothing left, THEN you are open to God. In Psalm 146, God gave everything to us; he holds up those without options; pay attention to what is going on today, and where is God in this? God cannot be known by thinking, only by experiencing and loving. We need to pay attention to what is going on TODAY – where is God in this? God cannot be known by thinking, only by experiencing and loving. Pay attention to what God is doing in our everyday lives, and LISTEN to others.

After worship, Deacon Stover had a “mini-retreat”, where she taught us a little about LISTENING. She set the session by lighting a candle in the middle of our “circle” that we formed in the sanctuary. The candle in the middle is a visual reminder of God’s presence. She then used a song from scripture, Psalm 45. We closed our eyes, and it was read in full and then cycled down while pausing in between: “Be still, and know I am God” – “Be still, and know I am” – “Be still, and know” – “Be still” – “Be”. “We all know our DOING, not much about our BEING.” We then had a prayer, and each drew a piece of paper with something on it and we were to think about why we were grateful for it. Some of the items were ice, winter, laughter, sand, colleagues, friends, mountains, sunshine, stars, seeds, color, texture, emptiness, structure, tears and cicadas. Deacon Stover told us that this exercise, makes us think about what we are grateful for – pure gift – which is something that did not come from US. She then used a prayer sheet (which was a handout) as the blessing for the potluck meal after the session.

Small packages, great things

The motto for Hershey’s Kisses used to be “Big things come in small packages!” That also could be a motto for Bethlehem, for Baby Jesus and, indeed, for us. It’s an important message to remember when we fear we’re too weak to fix the world’s problems, too small to fight the gigantic terror that threatens a loved one or too lacking in abilities we see in others.

“But you, O Bethlehem of Ephrathah, who are one of the little clans of Judah,” God declares through the prophet Micah (5:2, NRSV), “from you shall come forth for me one who is to rule in Israel.” Bethlehem was a mere village. God’s ruler for Israel started as an infant. His birthplace was a small stable, not a palace or temple. But size isn’t everything. Big – that is, great – things can come in small packages. And thanks to the tiny baby who grew up to share immeasurably huge love with the world, God can do great things through you, too!

St. Paul's Congregation observed All Saints Sunday during the November 4th Worship Service.

We remembered Howard Perkins and Darrell Sasse who passed away during the last year and the funeral of Neal Roelfs that took place at St. Paul Lutheran. There were no memorials dedicated this year.

We give thanks to God today for all their lives and for the love of God that is stronger and more enduring than death.

As a congregation, we will be conducting a food drive beginning now and going through the Advent season. Bring your food donations to the church – help us collect food for the needy.

Also, coats will be delivered to Blue Valley in Fairbury and/or the coat drive in Beatrice at First Christian Church the last week of December. Clean out those closets and help keep someone warm this winter.

"Setting the Stage for Jesus" on Christmas Eve

You are warmly invited to share in the joy of the birth of Christ on Christmas Eve, Dec. 24 at 7 p.m. The evening will begin with a cast of St. Paul members presenting "Stetting the Stage for Jesus". We have included a lot of traditional carols that the audience will be invited to sing. The wonderful tradition of the 'Candle Lighting' service will follow.

During the Sundays of advent, the play cast will be completing a variety of activities that will help set the stage of their hearts for Jesus. One of those will be the selection of a 'Caring Project'. Cast members will be extending an invitation to everyone to help in reaching our goal. We pray that this experience will help set a stage for Jesus in the hearts of all of our church family.

We look forward to sharing this moment of holy celebration with you!

Christmas Poinsettias can be ordered through the church. Cost will be $18 each with checks payable to St. Paul Lutheran and purchased through Sim's Florist in Fairbury. Sims will deliver them to the church on December 24 and will be displayed during the Christmas Eve and Christmas Day Worship Services.

There is a sign-up sheet in the back table in the Narthex. Orders will be taken until Sunday, December 16. If anyone would like to bring one on their own instead of through the church, please sign up at the bottom of the same sheet by December 23 so information can be included in the bulletin insert and bring your plant to church by NOON on December 24. Please contact Kendra K. Weers if you have any questions.
