Holiday Rest

Monday is sort of my day off, and it had snowed a few inches the night before. So in the afternoon I scooped around the parsonage for a while, and did a little down at church, and came home to see if anything would come to mind for my newscaster article. Nothing did. I was a little tired and so I sat down in my chair, opened the laptop and instantly fell asleep for an hour. I don't nap much, so it was a real experience.

When I woke up, I felt pretty good. But still, there was my laptop in my lap, and nothing was coming to mind. Until I suddenly realized that something had come to mind after all. Get some rest!

It's the season of Christmas and the coming of the Lord. We know the irony of power of God as a helpless infant. The way the revelation came to wise men who were the wrong religion, and shepherds who were largely immigrants. It's a mind-blowing power that upsets the established order.

But prior to all that, perhaps something else is revealed as well by the star and the angel choir. The "little Lord Jesus asleep on the hay" and getting some rest, oblivious to all the excitement. And like I always say, it's the first lesson taught in the Scriptures. Get some rest.

There is much to do. But to prepare for the coming of the Lord this season, get some rest. Like Jesus, become a human being before you do anything else.

November 9, 2025

A Unit Meeting of the Women of the ELCA was held following the worship service
Sunday, November 9, 2025.

President Ardith Barber called the meeting to order. Jane Pretzer shared a Thanksgiving Blessing.

Minutes of the September 7, 2025, unit meeting were read by Jane Pretzer in the absence of Secretary Peggy Hemphill. The minutes were approved as read.

Treasurer Diane Wellsandt reported a balance of $3,781.15. Recent donations included the funerals of Melvin Beran and Robert Weers. Thanks to Bob Wellsandt who answered our call of distress and quickly removed our uninvited visitor. A motion was made by Kendra K Weers to donate $250 to LWR for postage expenses. Carolyn Schultis seconded the motion. Baby Care Kits – Marcy Barber stated 50 kits were shipped with the Confirmation class of girls helping with the packing. An open discussion was held in regard to activity opportunities here at St. Paul – Eunice Circle Bible Study; Lutheran World Relief (LWR) projects which includes quilting, Baby Care Kits, School Kits, helping with funeral luncheons, Sunday Fellowship coffee and our monthly card project. All help is greatly appreciated and additional 'helping hands' would be most welcome.

HARVEST DINNER POTLUCK FUNDRAISER

On Sunday, November 2nd, All Saints' Sunday, the congregation gathered after worship for a Harvest Dinner. Members enjoyed a hearty meal of Polish sausages, warm German potato salad, sauerkraut, green beans, breads, and desserts.

Thanks to everyone's generosity, we raised $1,939 during the dinner, with later donations bringing the total to $3,239. These funds were applied toward the $8,575 cost of replacing the furnace and air conditioning in the parsonage. The remaining balance was covered by the general fund, and the bill has now been fully paid.

We are grateful for the support of our congregation and friends, and for a meal that nourished both body and community spirit.

All Saints Sunday Service

St. Paul's Congregation held a memorial service during the November 2nd All Saints Sunday Service. We recognized Larry Germer, Eldean Banahan, Joyce Kisling, Adam Roelfs, Robert Weers and Melvin Beran with the lighting of a candle for each of our beloved members. A solemn service in memory of our loved ones that passed in this past year. May God's love and comfort surround their families and our Church family.

Welcome, New Members!

Also during our November 2nd All Saints Sunday service, we welcomed into the church family a new family, the Mahrts. Welcome, Jurgen, Briana, Emilia and Eliza. We are very happy to have your family join us at St. Paul Lutheran! We welcome you, and may God's blessings and love flow to all of you.

Women of the ELCA Thank Offering Service and Community Thanksgiving Service

As the Thanksgiving Season arrived, the women of the church gathered to reflect on the large and small gifts they have received throughout the past year. As the year progresses, each participant is encouraged to have a Thank Offering Box close at hand to place a few coins of appreciation for the everyday occurrences/items they are grateful for. On November 23, the women brought their offerings forward and joined in a responsive reflection that celebrated the women who came before us, those serving as God's disciples today and those who will follow us. All were encouraged to live their lives with an "Attitude of Gratitude". The program was led by Beth Roelfs.

Thank Offering donation boxes are available on the table in the back of the church near the bulletins and table at the church entry.

On November 26, St. Paul Lutheran held a community Thanksgiving Service. Pastor Mark had a wonderful message about what gratitude is, that it is difficult because of all the 'cultural baggage' that comes with the word 'gratitude'. The Bible refers to gratitude as something like good fruit; how the fruit is a by-product of how the plant is cared for. Gratitude is a by-product of what YOU are doing. This is done in two parts. One is "distance, separation, space, etc.". Gratitude begins by getting some distance from work, school, house, appearance, aspirations, politics, social media, etc., etc. It's like the Sabbath where you stop working and get some distance from your week. Gratitude grows from distance of everyday life. Distance from co-dependency, being entangled in other's business, altering your state of mind. Get some distance, some gratitude that your well-being is not determined by what others think. Part two is the re-connection; reconnection to family, friends, the Thanksgiving dinner, and work. When you get some distance, it's easier to be close to people – the distance allows you to be with them in a better way, listen to them in a better way. This is gratitude; a fruit, a 'time out', a disconnection; a way to go back to others in a much healthier way by getting some distance. In the Gospel lesson of John 14, Jesus tells the Disciples that it's time to leave, to get some distance, since he is leaving them behind – being the gift instead of the possession. We are thankful for taking a break, getting some distance, then the reconnection to the gift. Happy Thanksgiving.

Thank you all so much for your kind thoughts, well wishes, and especially your prayers during my surgeries and recovery. Your support has meant more to me than I can express. I've felt lifted up by your love and faith, and it brought me so much comfort through every step of this journey.

I am truly grateful to be part of such a caring and prayerful church family. Thank you for walking beside me and reminding me of God's goodness through your kindness.

~ With love and gratitude, Ardith Barber

On November 30, we welcomed to the Kingdom of God Jameson William Scheele, Son of Jesse and Katlyn Scheele, grandson of Tim and Jill Scheele and great-grandson of Jim and Jeanette Bures.

Sponsors for Jameson were Delaney and Haydn Budenbender. We welcome you to the St. Paul family!

Our Choir sang, "Spirit of the Living God" on Sunday, November 9

Fall Coat and Food Drives

The food and coat drives will be coming to an end the first week of December, where the items will be distributed to several places that are in need.

If you would like to donate and be a part of these giving projects, please get your donations in as soon as possible.

St. Paul Christmas Caroling will take place on Sunday, December 7, meeting at the church at 4:30. After caroling, we will return to the church for soup and snacks. Soup will be provided by the Family Night Committee. Please bring a snack to share with fellow carolers. Please join us!

YOUTH GROUP

The Youth Group met on Monday, November 17, where a delicious meal was provided by Jamie and Sheri Schultis. After the meal, Pastor Mark and six youth members held a discussion about 'Paradise' and the viewpoints of the youth on the topic – their perception of Paradise compared to how it is presented in Genesis 2, the story of the Garden of Eden. Loneliness, anxiety, temptation and experience of limits were a part of God's original intention of 'Paradise'.

Congratulations to the Diller-Odell Play Production (One Act) team, who competed at the Conference Competition held on Wednesday, November 19th at Nebraska City Lourdes High School. District competition takes place on December 3rd at Pawnee City. Congratulations to church members Ryan Hicok and Morgan Steensness for receiving an Outstanding Performance Award for their acting. Besides these members in the cast, there were several youth in the crew.

Crew members for "The 9 Worst Breakups of All Time" from our church are Peyton Denner and Peyton Hansen. We are proud of your great performances!

Drake Day – 2nd Team Offense – End

Our high school participated in the Pioneer Conference Vocal Clinic on November 10 at Sterling high school with nine other schools. Five schools performed individually before the entire group performed five distinctly different types of songs from different genres. As pictured above, it was a very large group that came together in one day to give an amazing concert.

Morgan Steensness from our church participated in the clinic.

November CrossWalk

The CrossWalk kids began a study of the life of Jesus as November started. The first lesson told of Gabriel's visit to Mary. Week 2 celebrated Jesus' birth. The 3rd lesson shared the story of long waiting as Anna and Simeon looked forward to meeting their Savior.

We welcomed 3 new students to CrossWalk and awarded them a story or personal Bible. Work on the Christmas program will begin in December.

Congratulations to CrossWalk kid and St. Paul Lutheran member Addison Stein for being the Griffin Student of the Month for October. Addison is the daughter of BJ and Shannon Stein. Congratulations on a well-deserved honor!

HANGING OF THE GREENS

The readings were done by several Youth and Pastor Mark. The first reading by Creyton Heidemann was about the coming of the Christ child and the traditions of our Faith; the Star, the symbols, the colors. The second reading, also by Creyton, was about preparing our church for Advent, beginning with the paraments. Creyton and Cale Clifford presented the Advent banner and placed it at the front of the church while the congregation sang, "Soon And Very Soon." Pastor read about how the performing arts, specifically music, help express Christian doctrine and life. The hymns "Joy To the World" and "Silent Night" were then sung by the congregation.

Xavier Zabokrtsky lit the advent candle while Cale and Xavier read about the Advent candles and wreath and their meanings. The congregation sang "This Little Light of Mine." Scripture was then read by Xavier, and Josie Hennerberg read the Psalm. A verse from the Hymn, "Come Thou Long-Expected Jesus" was sung. After a prayer, Josie then did a reading and the Hymn, "Go Tell It On The Mountain" was sung. Youth members Cale, Xavier, Josie, Creyton and Griffin Zabokrtsky hung the greens while the congregation sang "Deck The Halls".

Griffin then did a reading about evergreens because they do not die; through all the seasons they remain ever-green. Griffin also did a reading about the Christmas Tree in Scripture from 1 Thessalonians. The youth placed ornaments on the tree and then the lights were lit as the congregation sang "O Christmas Tree."

Cale and Xavier then did readings about the meaning of Christmas tree ornaments, lights and the star. Cale then lit the Tree and Creyton did a reading about the Wisemen. Pastor Mark then read the Gospel lesson and delivered the message. The offering was collected by Cale and Creyton and then was received.

The Hanging of the Greens service was a beautiful and meaningful way to begin the Advent season.

Our Youth who did the readings
