Teaching the Faith

“I discovered later, and am still discovering right up to this moment, that it is only by living completely in this world that one learns to have faith. By this-worldliness I mean living unreservedly in life’s duties, problems, successes, failures. In so doing we throw ourselves completely into the arm of God, taking seriously not our own suffering but those of God in the world. That, I think, is faith”.

~Dietrich Bonhoeffer

What does it mean to teach the faith? My guess is that if I asked you that question you might say learning the Lord’s Prayer, the Creed, and the 10 Commandments. Perhaps something that had to do with church might be the response. You would enter a kind of religious world.

Dietrich Bonhoeffer is probably the most famous Lutheran theologian of the last century. And he answered the question much differently. One learns to have faith, he said, by living real life and taking in as much of reality of this world as possible.

The reality of this world is overwhelming. The massive wealth, the massive poverty, the overwhelming achievements, and the overwhelming failures. Most people are seeking some way to escape from it all.

Bonhoeffer said that the curriculum for faith was “in” it all. Life as we actually have it. Why? Because that’s where God is to be found. God can show up at church, but he shows up in every circumstance, and especially where there is suffering.

It’s a different way to think about learning the faith isn’t it? It’s really just learning to see reality. Because that’s where God is. Pretty cool way to think about it.

OLD BUSINESS

Shotgun microphone has been ordered and may be here Sunday. Question on how to mount it, possibly high up on Sacristy wall. Battery is needed for control board as it doesn't have phantom power. Diode has looked at the cable situation, no action yet. Potluck to honor Pastor Mark's 30th anniversary of ordination on June 5th following worship. WELCA got a $100 gift from Crosswalk for the fridge, have not yet received donation from the Youth Group, but planning on receiving $300 from them. Youth Group does not yet have a sponsor for next year. Haven't yet heard about the candle holder. May change Confirmation classes a little to reach some of the kids who haven't grown up in a congregation, maybe do a Dietrich Bonhoeffer study on his life, etc. to try to tell a story that is intriguing and captivating and how it applies to our life – "try to meet them where they're at". A new pastor in the Synod is a cool guy and seems to have some success.

NEW BUSINESS

Pastor Mark may do a Summer Sermon Series, possibly on Mental Health.

Synod Convention is coming up, please remember that we are honoring Pastor Mark on June 5th.

The next council meeting was set for Wednesday, June 15th at 7:30pm and committees to meet at 6:30pm, Diller Picnic will be the following week. Dave moved to adjourn the meeting and Jeanette seconded. The meeting was adjourned and closed with the Lord's Prayer.

Women of the ELCA

Unit Meeting May 4, 2022

A Unit Meeting of the Women of the ELCA was held Wednesday, May 4, 2022 at 1:30 p.m. with eight members present. Pastor Mark joined us later.

The meeting was opened with a prayer by Beth Roelfs.

President, Ardith Barber, began the meeting with a short program on God's Word taken from Psalms 1:1-6. The business meeting followed. Minutes of the February 1, 2022, meeting were read and approved. The Treasurer's report was read and approved. It was reported that the balance in our treasury is $882.54.

Committee reports were given. Jane expressed appreciation of the new refrigerator; Jeanette reported that there were bowls in the kitchen that need to be claimed. Carolyn mentioned that the work group meets on every fourth and fifth Tuesdays of each month; Ardie sent Easter cards to the college students and mentioned that college and high school graduates had been invited to church for graduate recognition on Sunday, May 8, 2022. Norma stated that the Eunice Circle meets every second Monday of the month.

World Day of Prayer was held on March 4 at the Odell Methodist Church with several of our members attending. We were so excited to have our spring salad supper again this year. It was held on April 24. We had a wonderful turn-out with ladies from several area churches joining us. There were approximately 50 ladies in attendance. We had an excellent program with guest speaker, Lori Gottula, who shared with us her story of how God has broken the chains that kept her from living her best life in Him and how He will do the same for us.

Spring Gathering will be held on Saturday, May 21, 2022 at the Lutheran Center on the University Campus in Lincoln. Diller Picnic food stand will be June 24 and 25. Beth mentioned that Vacation Bible School will be a one-day event on Wednesday, August 3, 2022, at Camp Jefferson. Our ladies were asked to help with preparing sack lunches for those in attendance. Those volunteering to help were Ardie Barber, Carolyn Schultis, Peg Hemphill, Diane Wellsandt and Jeanette Bures.

A reminder of those who have volunteered for the card project for the next several months are May-Judy Landenberger; June-Jeanette Bures; July-Peg Hemphill; August-Linda Behrends; September-Carolyn Schultis.

Offering for the evening was $89. Refreshments were served by Peggy Hemphill.

The next Unit Meeting will be held August 10, 2022, at 1:30 p.m. with Diane Wellsandt as hostess.

CrossWalk Ends with Pool Party Celebration!

The CrossWalk program ended this year with a Pool Party and pizza at the YMCA on May 1. Thirty-five kids, helpers and parents enjoyed time in the water and on the playground. The event was topped off with pizza. It was also a time to thank the upperclassmen who helped with CrossWalk throughout the year. Each received a basket of treats. Those pictured (center photo) are: (back) Makenzie Peitzmeier, Peyton Hansen, (front) Josie Hennerberg, Teagan Kapke, Cale Clifford and Brennan Schultis. Others that were given a thank you basket are: Ryan Hicok, Athena Wendland, Lillian Welch and Myleigh Weers.

Amazing Snacks, Favorite Part of CrossWalk

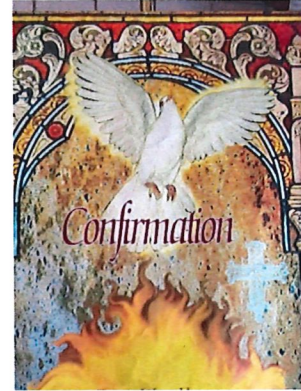

As much fun, singing, learning and creating that occurred each week at CrossWalk, one of the favorite parts for everyone was the snacks. Kids would race into the church to ask, "What's for snack?" Special treats included homemade cookies, mini corndogs and ice cream cookies plus much more. A BIG thanks goes to Ardie Barber and Jane Pretzer who coordinated the weekly food and drink choices. During the year others volunteered including Diane Wellsandt, Jeanette Bures and Diane Kisling. (apologies if anyone was left out)

Thanks also to EVERYONE who donated snack items or money to purchase food and drinks. We look forward to starting another great year in September.
